

Do not allow the Consumers Bankers Association (CBA) to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. Just because I have an existing relationship with a bank does not mean that I want them calling me every day to try and sell me something else. Banks and credit cards are the reason I signed up for the no call list in the first place.